CHARGER

1971

Sometimes

we want to be all alone in the world.

Owning all outdoors,
lying quietly,
Gazing quietly at the sky or making all the noise
we can,

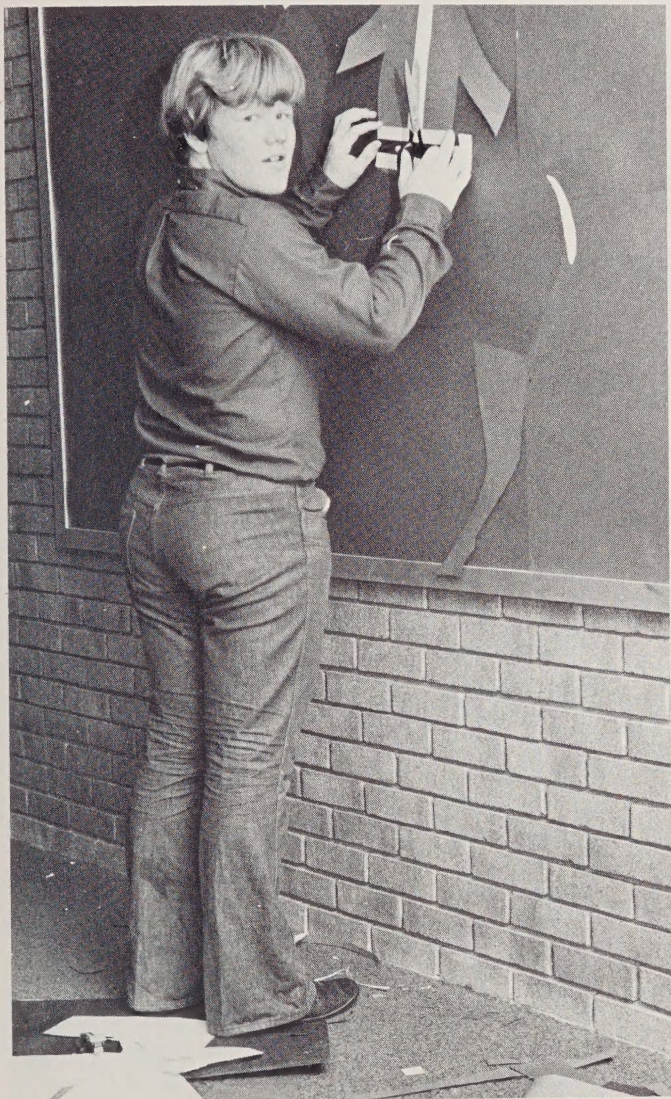

Wanting to be someone else
for a change.

Perhaps to hop on a bike and ride
to the ends of the earth.
To whistle in the wind,
and bite it, too.
To jump as high as the clouds
and land with a big plop that knocks out all our thoughts except the one which explodes with the landing on prickly grass.

Suddenly to be serious and profound.
Thinking marvelous thoughts that are bigger than life.
To become great.

Then to ourselves no more;
Finding that there is as much excitement in our real world
as in any world
we could imagine.

If a child lives with criticism,
he learns to condemn.
If a child lives with hostility,
he learns to fight.
If a child lives with fear,
he learns to be apprehensive.
If a child lives with pity,
he learns to feel sorry for himself.
If a child lives with jealousy,
he learns to feel guilty.
If a child lives with encouragement,
he learns to be confident.
If a child lives with tolerance,
he learns to be patient.
If a child lives with praise,
he learns to be appreciative.
If a child lives with acceptance,
he learns to love.
If a child lives with approval,
he learns to like himself.
If a child lives with recognition,
he learns to have a goal.
If a child lives with fairness, he learns what justice is.
If a child lives with honesty, he learns what truth is.
If a child lives with security,
he learns to have faith in himself.
If a child lives with friendliness, he learns that the world is a nice place in which to live.

CLASSES

We search ourselves and begin to discover what we are.
We become important,
Formed into people,
Being what we have learned,
Being ourselves.

We look around and like what we see,
Or
not liking it,
work to change it,
to remake the world.

May we have the strength to do that.

ATHLETICS

Red and white against blue.
Players colliding, performing,
moving furiously.
Each performing his intricate steps.

A cheering jumping shouting crowd;
The blare of a horn,
The smiles
of the cheerleaders,
And hoarse throats.

Then
that exuberant
after feeling,
The feeling that everyone was in there fighting too.

That top of the world feeling.
That comes whether we win or lose.

Varsity

We at WCDS are our varsity squad—
they have shown increased sportsmanship.

Compton, Mac Sullivan, Brooks Honeycutt, Vance Cuthrell, Louis Cox, Coach Don Eason.

Basketball

extremely proud of coached by Don Eason, ability and exemplary

Two points! (Of course)

We're on our way . . .

Anticipation

The talking is over, the game begins.

He's going all the way!!

Outnumbered, but still ahead!

Sink it, Louis, sink it!

Whoa! This is basketball, not football.

The varsity cheerleaders, a squad of five, helped contribute to our boys' success. They carried the spirit of the crowd through all the hopes and anxieties of every game. Whether our boys won or lost, there was always a warm welcome and the words of . . . a good game.

Jr. Varsity Basketball

FIRST ROW: Jim Bryan, Sterling Scott, Kent Freeman, Marion Sykes, Bill Bryan, Jim Shepard, Mike Pate, Greg Sullivan.
SECOND ROW: Mike Kokiko, Buddy Bryan, Andy Moye, David Rouse, Chuck Stokes, Albert Gillikin, Johnny Harper, Tim Pate, Garland Marks.

The Junior Varsity

The Junior Varsity coached by Mr. David Huth consists of grades seven, eight, and nine. Each game was a challenge, faced with much determination and spirit.

R-E-B-O-U-N-D

"What do you mean this floor's just been waxed?"

Where the action is!

Coach David Huth observes the scoreboard.

"Twinkletoes" Gillikin scores again!

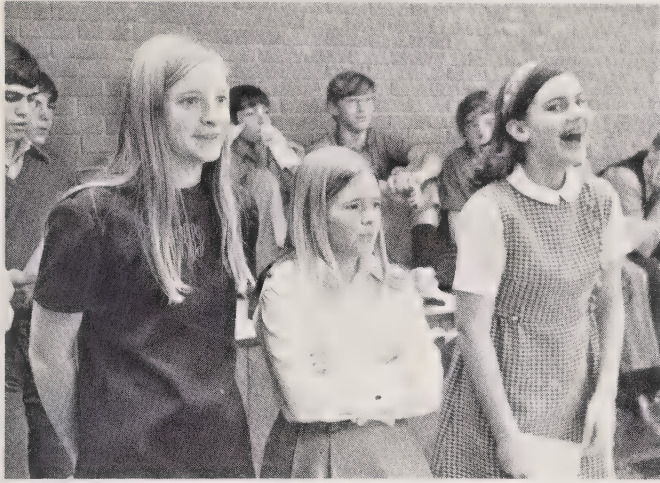

Jr. Varsity Cheerleaders

Head-Cheerleader: Jenny Lou Bridgers; Assistant-Head: Janet King; Nancy Parker, Laurie Crawford, Melissa Galloway, Sally Shepherd.

Pep Club

Officers: Agnes Parker, President; Karen Weyher, Vice Pres.; Betty Maxwell, Sec.

Come on — let's cheer.

Look boys — The game is up front.

ACTIVITIES

A bit of gossip
A private joke
A sly whisper in class.
Lending and borrowing Praising
and criticizing.
Friends forever.
Buddies.
Pals.

Things done in unison
Eating.
Grining.
Meditating.
Studying.
Sharing moods.
Going to the same places and thinking
the same "thoughts".

Two separate people.
Complementing one another.
Each giving the other something of himself.
Each becoming richer for the giving.

NINTH GRADE OFFICERS: President: Agnes Parker, Vice President: Nancy Parker, Secretary-Treasurer: Jenny Lou Bridgers, Parliamentarian: Susan Baucom.

CLASS OFFICERS

These officers represent their respective classes in council, presenting their class ideas and suggestions, then relaying council news with an official weekly report.

TENTH GRADE OFFICERS: President: Tuck Tucker, Vice President: Charlotte Maxwell, Secretary: Brooks Honeycutt, Treasurer: Julie Bennett, Parliamentarian: LuAnn Uzzell.

ELEVENTH GRADE OFFICERS: President: Banks Peacock, Vice President: Craig Honeycutt, Secretary: Bety Draughon, Treasurer: Florence Powell.

Contests

Winners of the magazine drive: 1st place—Gay Jeffreys, 2nd place—Sara Lynn Kornegay, 3rd place—Bill Bryan, 4th place—Agnes Parker.

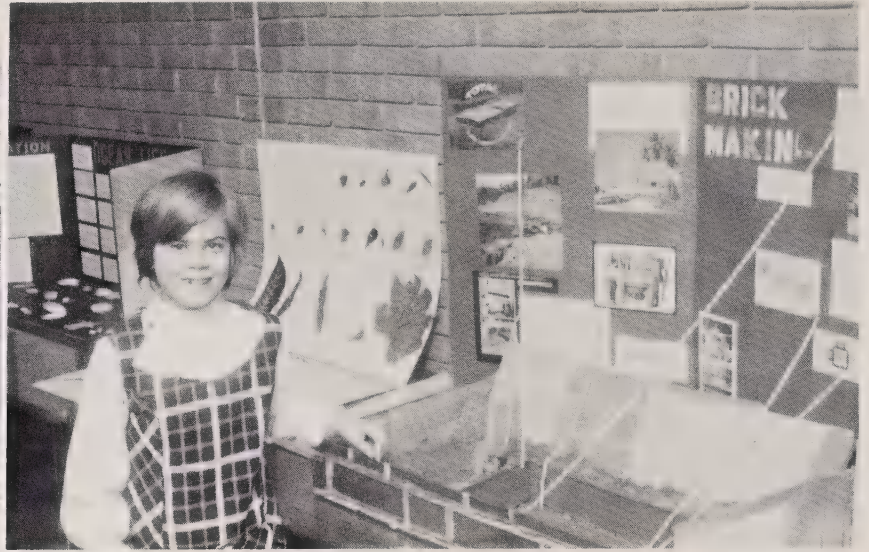

John, Mary Love, and Craig represent the Junior class in a speech contest. The winner representing WCDS in district competition.

Special Days

Science Fair

The fourth, fifth and sixth grades participated in the science fair sponsored by Mrs. Southerland. The students took pride in exhibiting their projects which showed industriousness and enthusiasm.

Class Rings Arrive

Expressions of pride and joy were displayed by all Juniors as class rings were slipped on for the first time.

Earth Day

Molly Patrick fights the "smog".

Once in the morning and your breath feels fresher for hours!

Susan Baucom portrays a "litterbug".

The ninth graders stage Earth Day.

Agnes Parker makes a plea to other students urging them to follow the ninth graders' example.

Students take over while . . .

Teacher Appreciation Day

Teachers enjoy a leisurely day.

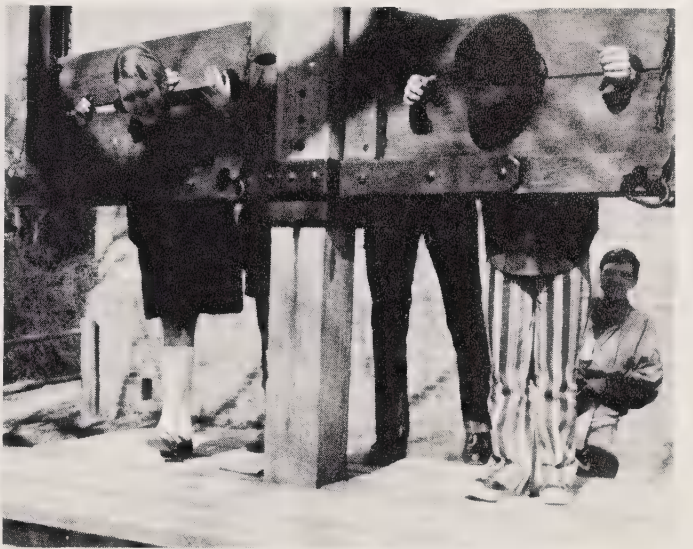

"Wong" creates . . . and busily prepares the teachers' favors.

Mrs. Huth receives her "goodies."
